

Wage and Hour Division
U. S. Department of Labor

LEGAL FIELD LETTER NO. 3

SUBJECT: Return of Grand Jury Authority

In cases where the Attorney General has designated any attorney of the Wage and Hour Division to act as Special Assistant for particular cases, the authorization states that it is to be returned to the Attorney General in the event it is not used. In the event it is used, a copy is to be returned.

We are now advised by the Department of Justice that these instructions are not being followed. Will you, therefore, be sure to return any such authorizations which you may now have on hand, which were not used, and copies of those which were, and to comply very carefully with these instructions in the future.

Issued as General Counsel Memorandum No. 2 - 1/2/40
Reissued as Legal Field Letter No. 3 - 2/7/39
