WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION ANNOUNCES CHANGES
ON TEXTILE INDUSTRY COMMITTEE

Fred Lazarus, Jr., Vice President and Treasurer of F. & R. Lazarus Company, Columbus, Ohio, was appointed a member of the Textile Industry Committee under the Fair Labor Standards Act to replace Louis E. Kirstein, Vice President of William Filene's Sons Company, Boston, who becomes chairman of the Apparel Industry Committee. These committee changes were announced today by Elmer F. Andrews, Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, U. S. Department of Labor.

At the same time Mr. Andrews announced the appointment of Allan Barrows, Treasurer of the Gosnold Mills of New Bedford, Massachusetts, to the Textile Industry Committee to replace Seabury Stanton, Treasurer of the Hathaway Manufacturing Company of New Bedford, who resigned because of ill health.
