Robert H. Rolfs, West Bend, Wisconsin
Louis Lefkowitz, New Brunswick, New Jersey
Milton W. Daub, New York, New York

Such representatives having been appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which such industry is carried on.

2. For the purpose of this order the term "luggage and leather goods industry" means:

(a) The manufacture from any material of luggage including, but not by way of limitation, trunks, suitcases, traveling bags, brief cases, sample cases; the manufacture of instrument cases covered with leather, imitation leather or fabric including, but not by way of limitation, portable radio cases; the manufacture of small leather goods and like articles made from fabric or imitation leather, except imitation leather made from paper; but not the manufacture of bodies, panels, and frames from metal, wood, fiber or paperboard for any of the above articles.

(b) The manufacture from leather, imitation leather or fabric of cut stock and findings for any of the articles covered in Section (a).

3. The definition of the luggage and leather goods industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations.

4. The industry committee herein created, in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, shall meet at the call of its chairman and shall proceed to investigate conditions in the industry and recommend to the Administrator minimum wage rates for all employees thereof who within the meaning of said Act are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce", excepting employees exempted by virtue of the provisions of Section 13(a) and employees coming under the provisions of Section 14.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of May, 1940.
