ORAL ARGUMENT ON PORTABLE LAMP AND SHADE WAGE RECOMMENDATION JANUARY 27

Oral argument on the recommended establishment of a 40 cents-an-hour minimum wage for the Portable Lamp and Shade Industry will be heard by Colonel Philip B. Fleming, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, at 10:00 A.M., January 27, 1941, in Room 3229 of the Labor Department Building, Washington, D. C. (Federal Register, December 19.)

Participation will be limited to those who appeared at the hearing on the recommendation held December 11 and 12, 1940, in Washington, before Henry T. Hunt, Principal Hearings Examiner of the Division. Notices of intention to appear at the oral argument before the Administrator are to be filed with the Division on or before January 15, 1941. Written briefs will be received if filed on or before the same day.
