PUBLIC HEARING ON 36 CENT MINIMUM WAGE RECOMMENDATION OF SEAMLESS HOSIERY COMMITTEE
MAY 1

A public hearing on the 36 cent minimum wage recommendation for the Seamless Hosiery Industry to be held May 1, 1941, was announced today by General Philip B. Fleming, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, U. S. Department of Labor. Henry T. Hunt, Principal Hearings Examiner of the Division, will preside. The hearing will begin at 10:00 a.m. in Room 3229, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C.

Any interested person may appear, either in support of or in opposition to the recommendation, provided he files a notice of intention to appear with the Administrator. The notice must contain the name and address of the person appearing; the name and address of the person or persons he represents, if any; if his appearance is for or against the recommendation; and the amount of time required for his presentation.

The definition: "The manufacturing or processing of seamless hosiery including among other processes, the knitting, dyeing, clocking and all phases of finishing seamless hosiery but not including the manufacturing or processing of yarn or thread."

Copies of economic studies made by the Wage and Hour Division and the Bureau of Labor Statistics, as well as the report and recommendation of the Committee will be available for inspection at the field offices of the Wage and Hour Division.

Copies of the report and recommendation of the committee may be obtained by writing to the Wage and Hour Division, Washington.

Further information may be obtained from General Fleming, or from attorneys representing him at the offices of the Division in Washington.
