Such representatives have been chosen with due regard to the geographical regions in which such industry is carried on.

2. For the purpose of this order the term "Logging, Lumber and Timber and Related Products Industries" means:

Logging; wood saw milling and surfacing; wood preserving; wood re-working, including but without limitation kiln or air drying, and the manufacture of planning mill products, dimension stock, boxes and other containers including cigar boxes and vegetable and fruit baskets, and wood turnings and shapings; and the manufacture of shingles, cooperage and cooperage stock, veneer, plywood, insulation board made of any vegetable fiber, prefabricated building units, and all other products made from wood, reed, cork, rattan, and related materials and from such other materials as bone, shell, horn, and ivory.

Provided, however, that the definition shall not include any product or operation included in the Wood Furniture Manufacturing Industry, Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry or the Metal, Plastics, Machinery, Instrument, and Allied Industries (as defined in the wage orders for those industries); or in the Pens and Pencils Manufacturing Industry (as defined in Administrative Order No. 168).

- The definition of the Logging, Lumber and Timber and Related Products Industries covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of products covered in the definition including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations, provided, however, this definition does not cover clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in an establishment, the greater part of whose sales are of products not covered in the definition, or employees of an independent wholesaler or employees of a manufacturer who are engaged exclusively in marketing and distributing products of the industry which have been purchased for resale, and provided further, that where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.
- 4. Any person, who, in the opinion of the committee, having a substantial interest in the proceeding and who is prepared to present material pertinent to the question under consideration, may, with the approval of the committee, appear on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person. Moreover, any interested person may submit in writing pertinent data to the committee either through the Administrator or through the chairman of the committee.
- 5. The industry committee herein created shall meet at 10:00 a.m. on August 30, 1943 in the Hotel Victoria, Victoria Room, New York, New York, and, in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, shall proceed to investigate conditions in the industry and recommend to the Administrator minimum wage rates for all employees thereof who, within the meaning of said Act; are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce." excepting employees exempted by virtue of the provisions of section 13(a) and employees coming under the previsions of section 14.

Signed at New York, New York, this 5th day of August, 1943.
