KINGSTON APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF REGION VIII

The appointment, effective March 1, of Russell L. Kingston to succeed Grace G. Glascott, resigned, as Regional Director of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the United States Department of Labor in Ohio and Michigan was announced by L. Metcalfe Walling, Administrator. Miss Glascott, who had held the post since 1940, will open offices in Cleveland and Detroit as advisory consultant on industrial problems.

Mr. Kingston has been Regional Director in Dallas and at the present time is Assistant Regional Director in Atlanta. He has been with the Wage and Hour Division for more than five years and previously served as a labor inspector with the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Navy Department, for 11 years. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Mr. Kingston is married and has two sons.
