GRIMES NAMED WAGE-HOUR DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR

F. Granville Grimes, Jr. today was named Deputy Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the U. S. Department of Labor, Wm. R. McComb, Administrator, announced. For five years Grimes has been assistant to McComb, who was Deputy Administrator until March of this year.

The new Deputy's career with the Government has covered more than 25 years. He has served with the Department of Justice, the National Industrial Recovery Administration, and the Department of Labor.

In making the appointment McComb said: "Mr. Grimes enters on his new job with broad experience in administrative law and with a thorough knowledge of the problems confronting both employers and employees covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Public Contracts Act."

Grimes was born in Alexandria, Va. He was educated in Washington, D. C. public schools and the Georgetown University Law School. He lives at 1504 Van Buren Street, N. W., Washington.
