U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

Office of the Administrator

Mr. Elmer F. Andrews, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor, announced today the appointment, subject to approval by the Civil Service Commission, of Mr. Calvert Magruder of Maryland, as General Counsel.

Mr. Magruder was general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board in 1934 and 1935. Immediately after the World War he was an attorney for the United States Shipping Board.

The new appointee is now professor of law at Harvard Law School, where he has taught since 1920. He has contributed numerous articles to university publications and is co-editor of "Cases on the Law of Partnership."

He was graduated from St. John's College, Annapolis, and from Harvard Law School, cum laude. During 1916 and 1917 he was secretary to Supreme Court Justice Brandeis and then for two years a lieutenant of infantry in the war.

He is married and has two sons. He is a member of the American Bar Association, of the National Lawyers Guild, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.
