AMENDMENT

Intended to be proposed by Mr. METCALF to the bill (S. 1712) to encourage national industrial recovery, to foster fair competition, and to provide for the construction of certain useful public works, and for other purposes, viz:

1           On page 18, line 17, after the word "and", insert
2 the following: "all contracts shall contain provisions for 3 such minimum rates of wages, to be predetermined by the 4 awarding authorities, which contractors shall pay to skilled 5 and unskilled labor, and such minimum rates shall be stated
6 in the invitation of bids and shall be included in the pro-
7 posals for bids for the work. The awarding official shall 8 have power to revise the predetermined wages if in his 9 judgment changed conditions so justify. In event the rate of 1 wages is increased, an amount equal to the amount of such 2 increase in wages in any one month shall be paid at the end

3 of such month to the contractor by the United States upon 4 a satisfactory showing by the contractor as to the amount
5 thereof, and in the event of a decrease in the rate of wages, 6 the contract price shall be decreased by the amount of such 7 decrease in wages, and such decrease in the contract price
8 shall be computed on the basis of satisfactory evidence sub-9 mitted by the contractor; and ”.
